Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in opportunities within your esteemed organisation, where I can leverage my extensive experience in product strategy and digital ecosystem development. With over 17 years in the industry, I have successfully driven product innovation and user engagement across high-volume web and mobile platforms, focusing on AI-assisted experiences and operational excellence.

In my current role as a Product Experience & Systems Consultant, I have partnered with startups and growth-stage enterprises to conceptualise next-generation digital products and establish scalable operating frameworks. My expertise in architecting consumer platforms and enhancing user journeys has led to significant improvements in engagement and monetisation, particularly through the integration of AI capabilities and workflow automation.

Previously, as a Senior Manager - Product, UX & Engineering at Verse Innovation, I directed product experience transformation for a multilingual ecosystem serving over 24+ million daily active users. My initiatives in platform modernisation and UX strategy have consistently resulted in enhanced user satisfaction and operational efficiency, demonstrating my ability to deliver impactful solutions in fast-paced environments.

I am excited about the possibility of contributing to your team and driving innovative product strategies that align with your organisational goals.

Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,
Chandranath Patra
